Additional Information:

Delores "Lolly" Marie Whiteman was born on the Standing Buffalo Dakota First Nation in Saskatchewan. Her family members have not seen or heard from her since the early 1980s and her last known whereabouts was 1987 in Edmonton. Some family members recalled hearing rumours that Delores left to Vancouver, Toronto, or the Northwest Territories. Other family remembered that she told them she was with a man and was visiting "from California." One other relative has consistently stated he remembers hearing that she went to the Seattle area. Delores' case is currently with the Regina RCMP Historical Case Unit. This photo was taken in 1961 when she attended the Lebret Indian Residential School.

Delores is very much missed by her family and friends.
