

INDIGENOUS WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS

VIRTUAL WEBINAR SERIES

How are you doing during COVID-19?

Share your stories of entrepreneurship during this unprecedented time! Help us identify the ongoing challenges and what is needed to support YOU.

Indigenous Women Entrepreneurs Round Table

Feb. 18th, 2021 2 P.M. – 3:30 P.M.

Discussing ways to reboot and support Indigenous women entrepreneurs. Hear from Indigenous women entrepreneurs on how the COVID pandemic has impacted their business and what strategies they used to respond to these challenges and setbacks.

Join the conversation and share your story about your challenges, your successes, and most importantly what else is needed to expand the circle of success.

Panel of Economic & Social Impact Experts

Feb. 23rd, 2021 2 P.M. – 3:30 P.M.

Hear from a panel of experts on the economic and social impacts of COVID-19 on Indigenous entrepreneurs and learn more about the various supports and economic recovery models available to Indigenous women entrepreneurs.

Learn how you can participate in a NEW national study looking at Indigenous Women Entrepreneurs from a holistic lens.

REGISTER NOW

FIRST 100 TO REGISTER FOR BOTH WEBINARS WILL RECEIVE A GIFT FROM NWAC

HOSTED BY:

Native Women's Association of Canada

L'Association des femmes autochtones
du Canada

CONFERENCE COORDINATION BY:

Ben MacDonald

t: 519 445 1794 e: ben@tapresources.ca